Scene of a Quake (Normal)

October 14th, 1924

Why? Why? Why are the walls dripping blood? I think they spell words . . . The letters are falling . . . Did I write this?

So many people are dead. I think I am dead too, but perhaps my mind has not yet noticed. Or perhaps my mind has noticed but my body refuses to listen? I see blood and letters everywhere. If I cut myself open, would the story of my life pour from my veins? Would I bleed paper?

October 14th, 1924, addendum

No.
