MICHAEL KORS
DRAFTED ONTO THE SOUTH END CELEBS

Michael Kors has run many stressful fashion shows, and he never blew it. But when his designers (quite the colorful characters) presented him with a written list of potential designs instead of sketches, he read it with frustration. He knew it wouldn't do, and he started to yell, "Oh, this is junk!" until he saw that the ideas could make a good design... or even three.
