

GREENWAY MEANDER

ANNIE OAKLEY
DRAFTED ONTO THE SOUTH END CELEBS

Annie Oakley has always been known for her “a-maze-ing” talent of sharpshooting. In fact, whenever she sees anything remotely resembling a target she gets her aiming eye ready. When she encountered the Armenian Heritage Park labyrinth in Boston, she traded in her bullets for letters and quickly filled in the labyrinth from start to end with one letter per space. Such a quick completion of her target, however, resulted in each entry overlapping the entry before it and the entry after it. (This puzzle requires location-specific information.)
