

FINAL EXAM (Meta-Meta Part Two): Let's Go to the Map!

It can't be...it CAN'T be! If your theory is correct--and doubtlessly it is--Carmen Sandiego's goal here in Boston is the theft of the MBTA itself! The entire rail system--the heart of the city--will be stolen if you can't figure out where Carmen is hiding! There's only thing we can do now...we had to reserve it for the truest, most deadly emergency of all. Some of the information isn't there--you'll have to fill in the gaps based on the twenty things you've learned today. And if we know Carmen, she's likely adopted the local accent to try and blend in. But we can't delay any longer...it's time to unleash ACME's most powerful secret weapon of all...
