

Checkered Flag

Congratulations!! You have completed The Great Race and deduced all of the events that have occurred along the way...or have you? In order to learn the race's final reveal, place the passwords you have collected in an orthogonally-connected manner into the grid below, ensuring that no password touches itself at any other point, not even diagonally. Present the phrase that you obtain at the finish line.

BAPHL 5 - Balloon, Autogyro, Pirogue, Hoof, and Limousine
