

919 2: TOAD

This hole-in-the-wall joint (as it were) features all local bands performing seven nights a week. It has a more hard-rock feel than the more bluesy, folksy Johnny D's and it tends to draw a somewhat more lively crowd.

To get this gig, you will need to impress the booking manager with the titles and first lines for eight of your songs. But don't get too worried; you are free to re-use any of the songs that landed you your gig at Johnny D's.

* Check in at TOAD by 4:00pm, no matter how many puzzles you have solved! ****

Also, I would advise not leaving Porter Square until after you have solved Alcoholic Haze.
