

While driving around Seattle, you tune into a local talk-radio station. The commentator insists on correcting everything the callers have to say, but you're not sure he knows what he's talking about either.

SUB-PAR PROVERBS

TOP NOTCH CORRECTIONS

-  A banana a day keeps the doctor away.
-  A bird in the hand is worth two in the cage.
-  Free things come to those who wait.
-  Honesty is the easiest policy.
-  Live great and prosper.
-  See your image flash before your eyes.
-  Slow and steady lengthens the race.
-  Speak softly and carry a heavy stick.
-  Take the bull by the apron.
-  There's no business like dog business.
-  The road to joy is paved with good intentions.
-  Two wrongs don't make a kitten.

-  No longer fresh
-  Inevitable partner of taxes
-  To run through, like with a tusk
-  Angel's headgear
-  Led Zeppelin's "Stairway to _____"
-  Liberal, as a direction
-  Fails to become victorious
-  Seattle area tech giant
-  Length of the pier you should walk off
-  Word before talk or time
-  William, of overture fame
-  Most inferior

