

Meta Exam--Vocabulary: "Searching for Meaning"

What a word-ridden mess! Miriam Webster, Carmen's lexiconic lifter, has truly outdone herself. She snuck into the school's book collection and managed to steal an entire location from literature right from the pages of a text! As she went, she knocked over a whole collection of letters--maybe if you use what you've gathered digging to organize the mess, useful information may cross your mind. But be careful--Miriam hid some categories of her own in the grid... Good hunting!
