

BLOWN TO BITS

When you came to seek treasure, you were hoping for the intact kind, as opposed to the ceramic shards you've discovered. You imagine this may have been valuable before it exploded, but the only way to know for sure is to try to put the pieces back together. Hopefully there aren't any missing!

Rows

- Distribute
- Playful trick; Type of service
- Without a key; Truckful; Women's patriotic gp.
- Running total in a tavern (2 wds); Intense state of activity
- "Come in"; Museum contents; Salon supply
- Class content; "Common Sense" author
- Dolphins' home; Flock
- Trent Reznor's band (3 wds)
- Tums competitor
- Worked for the CIA, perhaps; Battery part; Bra part
- Subject for Strunk and White
- Set of handyman's gear (2 wds)

Bits

1. Gradually stop
2. Goddess of love
3. Male voice
4. Word before "wolf" or "straits"
5. Fear, or existential angst
6. Closest to final
7. Japanese for "first generation"
8. Mischievous Norse god
9. Nabokov novel
10. Dawn, poetically
11. Not at sea (2 wds)
12. Christmas tree decoration
13. Garnishing sprig
14. Glowing
15. ____ Island
16. Breed that comes in cocker and springer varieties
17. Make a valiant effort
18. Lift a glass to

BLOWN TO BITS

While you are welcome to cut out the pieces on this page, that may be time-consuming and conducive to wind-related disasters. We recommend manipulating the letters on paper if possible.

